

BOUDREAUX CELLARS
WINTER 2009 NEWSLETTER

Dear Friends,

Announcing: The 2005 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2005 Syrah, and the 2007 Chardonnay are being released now.

Winter has a lock on Icicle Canyon. The gorgeous still frosty days remind me how little I am and how big everything else is. Access to the winery has remained really good this winter so if you are up for an outing, give me a call! We are enjoying the complicated 2005 Cab now and rejoicing that Wine Enthusiast named the 2005 Merlot as Number 84 in the Top 100 Wines for 2008. Paul Gregutt of the Seattle Times named us in the Top 10 Washington wines for 2008. The new wines are the best yet so we are on a very optimistic path.

I have attached tasting notes for the 3 new wines we are releasing. The Reserve (look out!) is mostly Champoux Vineyard again with a big dose of intensity from Leonetti Estate Loess Vineyard. The Syrah is Pepper Bridge and Wallula vineyards (kinda like beauty and the beast). The Chardonnay is mostly Celilo Vineyard this year with some sexy tropical Bishop's Vineyard to seal the deal. Each of these 3 wines were made in small quantities so if you want them, get them now, especially you case buyers/cellar maestros...We ship UPS Ground to most locations.

In other news, Keely Newsom will graduate from Western Washington University in late March. You go girl!!! Tamara is renovating her store, Inside and Out, next week before heading to markets in Seattle and Vegas. My assistant winemaker, Tyler Vickrey, is still available, girls..... I have a new bluegrass song, co-written with Kenny Smith, playing on Sirius Bluegrass Radio. Its called "Icicle Canyon". We made up the part about the girl with the broken heart.....If you want to hear a world-class line-up of acoustic music, attend Wintergrass in Tacoma, WA. Feb 19-22. Details at www.wintergrass.com. Be sure to bring some good vino with you!

We remain your faithful winemakers in beautiful Icicle Canyon,

Rob and Tamara Newsom
